

CANYON ROAD DINING TABLE

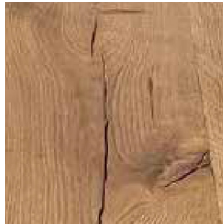

RALPH LAUREN
HOME

DINING

Showcasing rustic simplicity and artisanal craftsmanship, Ralph Lauren's Canyon Road dining table unites solid oak beams treated with a smooth waxed finish, with particular attention paid to the wood's natural characteristics, including knots, variations, and grain patterns. The generous tabletop rests above a paddle cross-stretcher and thoughtfully sculpted legs, which are shaped to evoke the traditional woodworking style familiar to ranch architecture in the American West.
